Paying for Services – Getting Started

A service is an activity in which labor is the major factor and not merely incidental to the production, acquisition, and/or delivery of a good. The procurement of services has unique requirements, and the first requirement is an evaluation of whether, based upon guidelines established by the Internal Revenue Services, the individual or entity providing the service should be classified as an employee or an independent contractor (vendor).

The next page contains a flowchart that will enable units to quickly determine whether they must contact another university office for guidance, appoint the service provider as an employee, or perform a service provider evaluation.

When a service provider evaluation is necessary, a questionnaire will be completed by the potential service provider. This Service Provider Questionnaire will enable the unit to evaluate whether a service provider should be classified as an employee or independent contractor. The evaluation and classification must be performed before engaging an individual or entity to perform services and before any services begin. It must be based upon IRS guidelines, not on administrative ease or relative costs.

♦ Note: If the IRS reviews classifications and determines the service provider should have been classified as an employee, any costs associated with misclassification (taxes, interest, penalty) are the responsibility of the unit.

Paying Foreign Nationals

Individuals entering the United States to work at Cornell University have many issues to consider. In an effort to ensure institutional compliance with federal regulations, Cornell’s Global Operations unit provides expertise on hiring non-U.S. citizens to work in the U.S. Contact the Navigate Team within Cornell’s Global Operations unit.

Worked Performed Outside of the United States

Work performed overseas can present a range of legal, financial, safety, and logistical considerations that create complications and could add expenses. This is true regardless of the nationality of the service provider. Consideration also must be given to whether the arrangement could trigger corporate registration or licensing requirements that may result in additional financial or regulatory obligations in the host country.

Before engaging a service provider to perform services outside of the United States, contact the Navigate Team within Cornell’s Global Operations unit. Select “Ask a Question” from the top menu bar and provide information on the services you require, including location and if known, who will be performing the services.

Service Providers – General Information
The following information does not apply to service providers appointed through Payroll.

Insurance
The service provider (vendor) is generally required to provide proof that they meet the university’s minimum insurance requirements if the performance of the service could result in liability to the University (i.e., services performed on university property). For information on the university’s minimum insurance requirements, see Section 405, Insurance Requirements topic within this manual. If you are unsure as to whether the intended service provider must provide proof of insurance, contact Risk Management and Insurance.

♦ Note: Payment Services (in the SSC Procure-to-Pay department) updates the KFS vendor record for those vendors that are required to provide proof of adequate insurance coverage. You may check the Insurance tab on the vendor record in KFS.

Contracts
A contract must be executed between the service provider (vendor) and the university in order to establish mutually agreed upon terms and conditions of the transaction. The university’s purchase order is a legally binding contract that contains terms and conditions designed to protect the interests of the university.

When procuring services, it is often advisable to include terms beyond those in the Cornell purchase order’s standard terms and conditions, such as the scope of work or deliverables, acceptance criteria, identification of who will provide the services, etc. Contracts covering several specific types of services have been drafted by the Office of University Counsel and these documents will be used in conjunction with the purchase order. The contracts, listed below, can be found on the Procurement website at http://www.dfa.cornell.edu/procurement/tools-forms/forms/contracts.

Getting Started
1. If the vendor is international (i.e., an individual working outside the U.S. or a foreign entity performing work within or outside of the U.S.) see International Consulting Agreements below.
2. Check the Specific Contracts for One-time Services below to see if there’s a contract there that meets your needs. Each of these contracts is geared toward a specific type of service: facility rentals; caterers; performers; photography, graphic design, general services, or language translation.
   1. If a contract is available, complete the contract with the service provider, and submit it through the normal I Want document process.
   2. If you need assistance selecting a contract, contact your BSC.
   3. If a contract doesn’t exist, continue with the next steps.
3. If the vendor is a legal entity (i.e., corporation, partnership, limited liability partnership, limited liability company):
   1. Select either the Professional Service or IT Professional Service agreement under Consulting Agreements below.
   2. Send the service provider the applicable professional service provider contract.
   3. Send the completed contract and a robust statement of work to your business service center (BSC) using an I Want document.
4. If the vendor is an individual or if you’re not sure if they are a legal entity, then complete the Service Provider Evaluation process, which is explained in Section 701.
5. If you are engaging a current Cornell student to conduct a workshop or perform a service,
   1. All payments to Cornell students for services rendered in the U.S. should be processed as follows:
      1. If the student has an incorporated business with a federal employer identification number, then follow the standard paying for services process and issue a purchase order to the business.
      2. If the student uses their social security number, then process through Payroll as a temporary casual employee.
   2. For students performing services outside the United States, contact Global Operations using the Navigate web tool to be sure the payment is allowed. Follow the International Consulting Agreement process. For tax reporting purposes, please indicate in the business purpose that service will be/was provided outside of U.S.

Specific Contracts for Services (with service provider attestation)

For international service providers (i.e., an individual working outside the U.S. or a foreign entity performing work within or outside of the U.S.), follow the instructions in the International Consulting Agreements section below and process on a purchase order. If you are engaging a foreign national within the US, if they are on a non-Cornell sponsored visa, you may not engage them without permission from the sponsoring agency.

These contracts are for specific kinds of one-time services, whether the services are performed by an individual or a legal entity (i.e., corporation, partnership, limited liability partnership, limited liability company) within the US. If you are engaging a service provider for repeat work over a period of time, please complete the service provider evaluation process and use the appropriate consulting agreement, i.e., independent consultant or professional services agreement.

Because a service provider attestation is included in these specific contracts, the service provider questionnaire and evaluation worksheet are not required. If the service provider indicates that they have been a Cornell employee, student, or student-employee within the past twelve months, contact tax@cornell.edu before proceeding.

Catering and Event Space Rental

Catering occurs when a vendor prepares, sets up, serves or cleans up food on Cornell controlled property, including both facilities owned by Cornell and facilities (event space) that may be rented or leased and only under Cornell’s control for the period of the event (i.e., rental of a banquet hall). Catering should not be confused with simple delivery where no service is provided on site (i.e., pizza delivery).

Below the contract requirements, deposit and final payment options for catering only, event space rental, catering with event space rental are defined.

For your convenience, the list of caterers with contracts is available on the Procurement website at https://www.dfa.cornell.edu/procurement/buyers/commodities/hiring-caterers/caterers.

Joint Venture

The university may enter into a joint venture with an outside entity for the performance of services. These ventures are often complicated. Units must involve Procurement prior to entering into such an agreement.

Sponsored Project Consulting Agreements and Subcontracts

When an individual is performing services that are directly related to the science or scope of a sponsored project, a Service Provider Evaluation must be completed to determine if the individual is an employee or an independent contractor. If after the evaluation, the service provider is deemed to be an Independent Contractor, a purchase order is required and an Independent Contractor/Consultant Agreement must be completed. Proceed to Section 701, the Service Provider Evaluation.
Note: If another organization is performing a substantive portion of the work effort based upon an award made to Cornell, it may be necessary to formalize this relationship through the execution of a subcontract. Such agreements are executed by the Office of Sponsored Programs (OSP). Please see OPS website at www.osp.cornell.edu/ for further information on subcontracts.
