

For Cornell use only. Do not send this form to the service provider. Use this worksheet to help determine whether a person is an independent contractor or a Cornell University employee. Use the Service Provider Questionnaire document completed by the service provider to answer the following questions.

Part I: Service Provider Information

Legal Name _____ Business/D.B.A. Name _____

Part II: Relationship with Cornell

1. Does this individual currently work for Cornell University? ... 2. Does Cornell want to hire this individual as an employee immediately following the termination of the contract for service? ... 3. In the past 12 months, was the individual on the Cornell payroll in either a regular or temporary appointment? ... 4. If yes to question 3, are the duties they performed in that role similar to those that would be provided under the contract for services? ...

Part III: Services

5. Does the individual routinely provide the same or similar services outside of Cornell to the general public as part of a continuing trade or business? ... 6. Will the department provide the individual with specific instructions regarding performing the required work rather than rely on the individual's expertise? ... 7. Will Cornell regularly furnish any of the following: office space, equipment, materials, tools, or supplies? ... 8. Will Cornell set the number of hours or days of the week that the individual is required to work, as opposed to allowing the individual to set the work schedule? ...

Service Provider Evaluation Worksheet, continued

What To Do Next

If the answers indicate the person should be an employee, contact your local human resources representative for direction.

If the answers indicate the person should be an independent contractor, submit this completed form and the questionnaire completed by the service provider to your business service center via the IWant document.

Worksheet Completed By:

Cornell Employee Name _____ NetID _____ Date Completed _____

Unit/Department or BSC _____